Registration modifications
Once registrations have been made, the teams will receive acknowledgement mails including their login and password information. Teams may proceed to changes free of charge before October 1st through their personal login. After October 1st, Modification requests need to me forwarded to cwc@pt.lu. Those modifications changes will be billed 35 Euro each. Payment for late changes is required when the teams receive their registration papers on-site (tickets and information).
Every table card that doesn’t match with the given QR code on the exhibition table won’t be judged.

Labelling
The plates and exhibition items have to be uniformly labelled on original table cards with the unique QR code from the organizer in order to designate them properly.
The organizer has the right to remove plates that do not fulfil the standard requirements of pastry art and plates with not original table cards.

Customs
Generally there should be no problem with the import of goods in limited quantities into Luxembourg.
From overseas the regulations must be respected. Each participant receives - upon request - a participation card, which has to be shown at customs upon request. Each imported good underlies the health and hygienic food regulations as defined by the EU.
Goods and raw materials
All goods and raw materials required for the preparation of the showpieces are available at the best quality in Luxembourg. As an order in advance is necessary, the participants can receive a list of special shops upon request. The participants must procure all products by themselves.

Material costs
The cost of materials for the exhibition items and decorations are at the expense for the exhibitor.

Preparation of the exhibition platters
The competitors must themselves provide for the working stations for the preparation of the exhibition items.
