WORLDCHEFS CERTIFIED JUDGES

WORLDCHEFS maintains a list of carefully evaluated judges. WORLDCHEFS Certified Judges will make sure that a fair and consistent level is achieved around the world with specific and measured judging criteria along with standardised competition rules and guidelines.

HOW TO BECOME A JUDGE

To become a Worldchefs Certified Judge you must complete and return this application together with requested evidence for evaluation by the Culinary Competition Committee (CCC). Only complete applications will be considered.

MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS FOR BECOMING A WORLDCHEFS CERTIFIED JUDGE:

- You must be a member of a chef association who is a national member of WORLDCHEFS and in good financial standing.
- Be a professionally qualified Chef and active as a Chef in a commercial kitchen; or a Foodservice Manager; or a Chef Educator.
- You must have completed a WORLDCHEFS Competition Seminar.
- Be able to understand and communicate in English at a reasonable level.

WORLDCHEFS COMPETITION SEMINAR

WORLDCHEFS has developed Competition Seminar programs for ambitious culinarians looking to gain insight into the height of international competition standards.

Attending a specialised Competition Seminar is a mandatory part of an application to become a Worldchefs Certified Judge.

A certificate of participation in the following Competition Seminars can be submitted as one of the required application credentials: Culinary Arts & Hot Kitchen, Pastry Arts, Community Catering, Carving and Vegan.

Worldchefs member associations, schools, and organisers of endorsed events can license and conduct Competition Seminars for the benefit of all chefs in their network.

RENEWAL OF JUDGING LICENSE

In order to maintain their Judging Licence, Judges are required to attend a competition seminar every five (5) years. They will receive a reminder from WORLDCHEFS office one year ahead of expiration and must complete the renewal process. The application form will be checked at the same time again.

SUSPENSION OF A JUDGING LICENCE:

There are three (3) reasons for suspension:
- Violation of the judge’s code of conduct.
- Wrong information on the application forms provided to the CCC.
- If a judge is no longer a member of a WORLDCHEFS member country association.

If a judge moves to another country, the judge license will be valid in the new country as soon as he/she becomes a member of the national WORLDCHEFS chefs association in the new country. It is the responsibility of the judge to inform the Worldchefs office about his/her change of country. It has to be proved by sending a copy of his/her new membership card and a receipt of the membership fee to Worldchefs office.

PROCESS

All requests for a judge’s recall must be sent to the CCC chair by a competition organizer, chairman of a jury group, a WORLDCHEFS observer or a President of a National Chefs Association that is a WORLDCHEFS member in good standing. (Not Affiliate or Associate members).

- The CCC will send a letter to the judge in question through the WORLDCHefs office and give him/her a chance to explain himself/herself.
- The CCC will make the decision and the WORLDCHEFS office will inform both the judge and his National Chefs Association of the decision. The decision cannot be appealed.

A country has the right to request that a judge is removed. The request can only be done by the president from a WORLDCHEFS member country in good standing, not an Affiliate nor an Associate member. The president must inform the CCC which will confirm to the country in question and will inform the WORLDCHEFS office. The WORLDCHEFS office will remove the judge from the list. It is the country who has the responsibility to inform the judge in question of the dismissal.
